

MEMORY NT 8V P

MEMORY NT 8V P

- Models with 4 or 8 digital probes. - Models with on-board printer. - RS 485 Modbus connection for data download via M1000 software. - USB port for configuration and data download. - Memory storage of 6 years for a recording frequency of 5 min regardless of the number of probes. - Alarm by relay and buzzer. - Large format backlit LCD screen.

The new generation Memory NT recorders allow, with a single device, to record temperatures according to the EN12830 standard for static or ventilated cold rooms. It can be used for cold rooms intended for refrigerated, frozen and deep-frozen products. The device is approved according to: • FR 12830/2018 The case, with its innovative design, is easy to install. Memory NT series recorders are easy and intuitive to use, thanks to the easy-to-read screen and six large keys allowing direct access to functions. The recorders are available with a range of advanced features such as: communication with digital probes (with the possibility of extending the cables without breaking the digital seal), Modbus communication via RS-485 interface, USB connection for data download, alarm relay and optional thermal printer.

MEMORY NT

Power supply	230 V
Number of probes	8
Connection	RS 485
Alarm	Relay and Buzzer

